STATE JUDICIAL CONVENTION.

Official Report of Proceedings, Published by Request of the Officers.

The Democratic Convention, called to nominate a Chief Justice and two Associate Justices for the Supreme Court of North Carolina, met in the city of Raleigh on Thursday, June 13th, and assembled in Metropolitan Hall at 12 M.

It was called to order by Samuel A. Ashe, Chairman of the State Executive Committee, and upon his proposition, John Manning, of Chatham, took the chair as temporary chairman, and Chas. R. Jones, of the Charlotte Observer, was made temporary secretary.

Upon taking the chair, Mr. Manning placed before the Convention the duties devolving upon it, and at the conclusion of his remarks declared the Convention ready to proceed to business.

Upon motion of Mr. Galloway, of Greene, a committee of one from each Judicial District was appointed as a Committee on Credentials, each district naming the member it selected to represent it; and

On motion of Mr. Grainger, of Wayne, a Committee on Permanent Organization, to be named in the same manner, was appointed.

The following gentlemen constituted the Committee on Credentials:

1st District, A. L Blow, Pitt.
2nd " B. M Collins, Warren.
3rd " J. G Burr, New Hanover.
4th " N B Canaday, Granville.
5th " David Settle, Rockingham.
6th " S J Pemberton, Stanly.
7th " C B Watson, Forsythe.
8th " J R Simpson. Polk.

And the following gentlemen were appointed as the Committee on Permanent Organization:

1st District Jas E Moore, Martin.
2nd " W G Lewis, Edgecombe.
3rd " C C Lyon, Granville.
4 h " J D Cameron, Orange.
5th " M S Robbins, Randolph.
6th " A M Dowell, Catawba.
7th " J S Henderson, Rowan.
8th " J W Wilson, Burke.

On motion of J. N. Staples, of Guilford, the delegates present were instructed to report to the Committe on Credentials by sending lists to the Secretary; and the Committee was authorized to make proper examination of proxies.

The Committee on Permanent Organization was made also a Committee on Resolutions.

On motion, the roll of counties was called, and all were present, by delegation or by proxy.

The Committee on Permanent Organization retired for consultation; and returned with the following report:

The Committee on Permanent Organization and Resolutions, beg leave to report that they recommend the following gentlemen as permanent officers of this convention:

H B Short, of Columbus, President.
J D Cameron, of Orange, Secretary.
Robt M Furman, of Buncombe, and
Seth Carpenter, of Craven, Assistant Secretaries.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENTS.

1st. District. S B Spruill, of Bertie,
2d " F M Rountree, of Greene.
3d " W A Allen, of Duplin.
4th " W H Bledsoe, of Wake.
5th " Jesse H Lindsay, Guilford.
6th " John D Shaw, of Lincoln.
7th " R Z Linney, of Alexander.
8th " J Johnson, Macon.

(Signed), JOHN S. HENDERSON, Chairman.

And the report was unanimously adopted, and the Chairman elect was conducted to the chair by J S Henderson and J L Robinson, and briefly addressed the convention.

On motion the Vice-Presidents elect took their seats upon the platform.

On motion Mr. H A London was appointed secretary to sign certificates of returning delegates.

The committee on Credentials then submitted the following report:

The committee on Credentials beg leave to submit the following report;

1st. That the counties of Davie and Ashe are not represented.

2d. That the counties of Currituck, Camden, Dare, Tyrrell, Onslow, Davidson, Alleghany, Watauga, Cherokee, Clay, Graham, Henderson, Jackson, Swain, and Transylvania, are represented by proxies.

3rd. That all the other counties are represented by delegates in person.

Signed,
N. B. CANADY, Chairman.

J. L. Robinson informed the convention that he held the proxy of Haywood county.

And the report of the committee on credentials was adopted.

On motion of H. C. Jones, of Mecklenburg, it was moved that in casting the vote of this convention, the basis shall be the Democratic vote cast in the Gubernatoral election of 1876, and that each county shall cast one vote for every one hundred votes cast for Zebulon B. Vance, and one vote for each fractional part over fifty.

On motion of Mr. Venable, it was moved that Granville county be entitled to cast 24 votes instead of 21, as limited by the reported official vote, it appearing that the vote of Henderson precinct, thrown out in the former official count, was subsequently validated by decision of the Supreme Court of North Carolina.

The chairman announced that nominations for Chief Justice of the Supreme Court were now in order.

W. T. Dortch, of Wayne, nominated W. N. H Smith; and moved that the nomination of Mr. Smith be made by by acclamation, objections being made the vote was had by calling the roll of counties; and Mr. Smith received the unanimous vote of all the counties, and was declared by the chairman unanimously nominated.

Nominations for Associate Justices were then in order.

J. W. Plummer, of Anson, nominated Thomas S Ashe, of Anson.

J. W. Hughes, of Craven, nominated Matthias E. Manly, of Craven.

R. Z. Linney, of Alexander, nominated George N. Folk, of Caldwell.

J L Robinson, of Macon, nominated David Schenck, of Lincoln.

D. J. Devahe, of New Hanover, nominated A. A. McKoy, of Sampson.

W. T. Dortch, of Wayne, nominated George Howard, of Edgecombe.

D. H. Whedbee, of Pasquotank, nominated P. H. Winston, Sr., of Bertie.

J H Gilmer, of Guilford, nominated John H. Dillard, of Guilford.

T. B. Venable, of Granville, Marcellus D. Lanier, of Granville.

A. W. Graham, of Orange, nominated Thomas Ruffin, of Orange.

W. S. Mason, of Northampton, nominated Thomas N. Hill, of Halifax.

F. E. Shober, of Rowan, nominated J. M. Clement, of Davie.

Davie county, reported by the Committee on Credentials, to be without representation, was now reported to be present by delegation.

The Convention then proceeded to vote for the Associate Justices, by call of counties.

Before the count was announced many delegations asked and obtained leave to make changes in their vote.

The result of the vote was then announced as follows:

Thomas S Ashe received	774	votes.
Matthias E Manly	"	83	"
David Schenck	"	119	"
A A McKoy	"	206	"
George Howard	"	171	"
P H Winston, Sr.,	"	473	"
J H Dillard	"	385	"
M V Lanier	"	7	"
T N Hill	"	179	"
J W Clement	"	40	"
G N Folk	"	15	"

One thousand two hundred and sixteen votes were cast, and 609 were necessary to a choice; and Thomas S Ashe having received 774 votes, was announced as duly nominated by this Convention.

On motion, the Convention took a recess until half-past 8 o'clock, p. m.

EVENING SESSION.

The Convention re-assembled at the hour designated, and, upon the restoration of order, proceeded to vote for one Associate Justice of the Supreme Court.

The candidates voted for in the morning session were in nomination.

Before the vote was ready for announcement, representatives of many delegations asked leave to change votes already given—the changes being mainly to John H. Dillard, and on motion of C. M. Cooke, seconded by P. B. Means, the nomination of John H. Dillard was made unanimous; and he was declared a nominee of this Convention for one of the Associate Justiceships of North Carolina.

On motion of Kope Elias, of Macon, the Convention endorsed the nominations made by the District Judicial Conventions, to wit: Of J. F. Graves, of Surry, of the 7th district; of A. C. Avery, of Burke, 8th district; and of J C L Gudger, of Haywood, 9th district.

R. T. Bennett, of Anson, called up a resolution introduced during the morning session, providing that the District Executive Committee select the State Central Committee.

On motion of T. B. Venable, it was resolved that the Chairman appoint seven gentlemen, who, with four to be named by the Congressional delegation, shall constitute the Central Executive Committee of the State for the Democratic party.

The Chairman of the Congressional delegation sent forward the following recommendations for members of the committee, and they were unanimously ordered; and with the appointments to be made by the chair, constituted the State Central Executive Committee.

EXPIATION.

THE GALLOWS AT GOLDSBORO.

Execution of the Worley Murderers.

By Special Reporter for the News.

THE TRAGEDY.

Perhaps nowhere within the borders of North Carolina, has there ever been perpetrated a more fiendish and atrocious crime, than what is now known all over the State as the Worley Murder. Certainly no section of the South has never experienced a more hellish deed, or one which aroused a more universal feeling of indignation against the perpetrators.

The details of the horrible murder have already been related in the News.

EXPIATION.

Yesterday at 3 o'clock p. m.. Noah Cherry, Robert Thompson and Harris Atkinson suffered the death penalty in Goldsboro, for the murder of poor James Worley and his wife, Appie Jane Worley, on the night of 11th February 1878, in the county of Wayne.

THEIR LAST DAY UPON EARTH.

Yesterday dawned bright and fair, and the culprits for the last time looked upon a glorious sunny morning.

On Thursday afternoon, and during the night, the crowd began to assemble from all directions, in buggies, wagons, steer-carts, on horseback, and every conceivable vehicle that could be brought into service. On Friday morning the trains from the North, South, East and West brought in an immense number of people from the adjoining counties.

Although it was known that only one hundred people would be admitted in the jail yard, and those only upon presentation of tickets from the Sheriff, yet the crowd poured in from every direction—white and black of both sexes, until it reached 12,000. Hotels, boarding-houses and eating saloons were taxed to feed the vast multitude.

It had been our purpose to visit the prisoners early yesterday morning, but the complaint that frequent interviews, added to the difficulty of discrimination on the part of Sheriff Grantham, rendered it necessary to refuse all applications to the jail, except the clergy and the immediate relatives of the condemned.

THE CONDEMNED PRAYING.

Young Charley Griffin, of Griffin Bros., called to see the prisoners on Thursday night, and remained with them until 11 p. m. He was admitted by the jailer, and passed into the gloomy recesses of the jail alone, and for several hours sat in front of the cell of Noah Cherry and read the bible. He asked the other prisoners if they could hear, to which Thompson and Atkinson replied in the affirmative. There, in the gloom of their last night on earth within the walls of their cells, beyond all hope of mercy, the poor wretches listened to the words of God as they have been declared to us from the days of Adam. Afterwards Young Griffin knelt in prayer, in which the prisoners took part. During these solemn services he was frequently interrupted by the exclamations of the condemned, Noah Cherry and the others breaking in with "Lord give me your assistance, for I need it now; Jesus have mercy upon me, oh, Christ, have mercy upon me a sinner." The condemned appeared to appreciate the great kindness shown them by young Griffin, they were much affected, and Noah Cherry wept bitterly. On a previous visit of Mr. Griffin, Noah Cherry and Harris Atkinson said they had a heavy weight upon their hearts that they could not get rid of, but on the last night upon earth, at the midnight hour, they exclaimed, "We have got rid of it and are prepared to meet our God."

THEY REFUSE TO CONFESS.

They were exhorted to make a full confession of their connection with the atrocious crime—without that they could not hope for mercy from God. Each stated that he would tell the whole truth upon the scaffold. The prisoners avowed that they had been wronged and done to death by Jerry Cox, the States' witness; said they, "We forgive Jerry Cox and our enemies."

During the night the poor wretches slept well, and awoke at an early hour yesterday morning. Shortly after awaking, and after the outer cell doors were opened, they began to sing hymns, their voices as they sang the old, old hymns of former days, which belong only to the Southern negro were echoed down the aisles of the jail, and heard for several squares around. Sheriff Grantham had, in the goodness of his heart, asked the prisoners to call for what they wanted for their last meal, and it would be furnished them. Bob Thompson said: "Sheriff, give us a good beefsteak for breakfast," which was furnished and very much enjoyed.

FAMILY FAREWELL.

At an early hour yesterday the saddest scenes transpired. The wife of Harris Atkinson visited him for the last time. She remained but a few moments, bade him good-bye, with a wife's blessing, and then left the jail weeping bitterly. Next came the oldest son of Robert Thompson. The interview with his father occupied but a few minutes. The last farewell was spoken, and he disappeared from the scene. These interviews were held only in the presence of the sheriff and jailor, who, while they kept close guard, forbore to interrupt the sacredness of the scene. After this, the prisoners requested that they might be allowed to remain undisturbed until their presence was required by law. The kind-hearted sheriff freely acceded to their request.

THE ORPHANED CHILDREN.

Among the many events of the day was the presence upon the grounds—inside the enclosure—of the three children of the murdered parents. Little Tildie Worley, in charge of her uncle, John W. Batten. The next youngest, Cora Francis, (a lovely child) and the youngest Celia Louisa, a sweet little girl of only 13 months, were each in charge of parties who seemed to care for them as if the children were their own. Little Louisa is with Mrs. Polly Pearce, the sister of the late Mrs. Worley. She said to us," I know no difference between my poor sister's children and my own—the poor little child clinging to her breast as if it remembered the terror of that awful night and knew no haven or shelter, save the arms of its mothers sister. Mrs. A J K Rhodes, of Wayne has the second child, the children are robust and handsome. When Mrs Pearce said to us, "this is my poor sisters child (weeping.) We turned away lest we ourselves might shame our manhood in the midst of an excited multitude.

THE GALLOWS

Which was erected nearly a week ago was a substantial frame. It had been arranged with the view of hanging all the prisoners from one trap. It was formed of two upright beams, well secured with a cross beam of 10x10, from which they were hanged, the gallows measured 18 feet from the ground, 16 feet between the uprights and a distance of 3 feet 10 inches was allowed the guilty wretches. A fall of 6 feet was given in order to fracture the neck. It was a trap scaffold swung on hinges, and operated by simply pulling a rope attached to a bolt underneath the trap which sprung it.

THE VAST ASSEMBLAGE.

In and around the jail and upon the court green a vast assembly had congregated, anxious to witness the execution. Within the enclosure of the jail yard were arranged the Goldsboro Rifles, Captain W. H. H. Cobb commanding, armed, uniformed and equipped, as a guard; outside the enclosure were the Vance Guards, a company composed of negroes.

THE SCENE.

At the southeast window of the jail we observed the three little children of the murdered Worley and wife (but they ought not to have been there.

TROUBLE ANTICIPATED.

At one time it was feared that a serious difficulty would occur. The surging masses in and around the jail enclosure made a rush towards the rope line, and it became necessary to drive them back at the point of the bayonet, which was promptly done by the Goldsboro Rifles.

THEIR LAST MOMENTS IN PRISON.

At half-past 1 o'clock, p. m., the Rev. Z. F. Pearsell (negro) called to see the prisoners, and had prayers with them for the last time. The Rev. J. T. Bagwell, of the M. E. Church, had previously called and assisted in religious offices. The prisoners exhibited great emotion, and at one time old Noah Cherry knelt in a corner, alone, and prayed fervently. At this moment each one said: "I am prepared to meet my God,"

PREPARATION FOR DEATH.

After the religious exercises they proceeded to wash and dress, assisted by their friends. The Sheriff had kindly furnished each with a new suit of black, which was accepted.

And now began the most solemn scene of the occasion.

ON THE SCAFFOLD.

A precisely 2.10 P. M they bid a last adieu to their fellow prisoners begging each one to meet him in heaven and left alone their cells to ascend the scaffold, Noah Cherry, Robt. Thompson, and Harris Atkinson ascended the scaffold with a firm tread, accompanied by the sheriff and three deputies. Chairs were furnished by the jailor.

The prisoners having taken their seats, Noah Cherry was the first to speak. He said: "Noah Cherry is to be hung to-day for nothing. I am going to make my escape to heaven. The night that Jim Worley and his wife were killed I was at my home. Every single word uttered by Jerry Cox on the trial was false; he made up the story himself. On the day of the murder I had been getting staves, was tired and hungry at night, and I went straight to Melvin Atkinson's. On my way there I begged Alvin Stallings for something to eat. I am just as clear of killing Jimmy Worley as a child unborn. He then continued to tell the same old story, which has so often heretofore been published in the News. He then turned to the editor of the Messenger and said: "Write to my dear children, Burnetta and Isabella, and tell them to take care of my property and of themselves too. * * * The stories rolled up and told on me by Jerry Cox were enough to kill a dog, much less a man. I have been in jail about four months, and have been treated kindly, though I was bothered some by the lice in the cell. Write to my children that I have gone to heaven, at least I hope to get there, but I am not exactly sure of it; that rascal Jerry Cox may throw me off of the track * * * *

HARRIS ATKINSON SPEAKS.

All I've got to say about the murder, now that I am at the point of death, is, what has put me here were the lies of Jerry Cox, and nothing else. There were some white people who helped to make his evidence bright, and I will call the names of the white people if I have time. There's a heap of them around here who have been in the jail often, and seemed glad that Jerry Cox had put us in this fix. * * * He censured Moses Pearsell in severe terms, who attempted to fix the crime upon him. He said: "I must give the Sheriff his due; he, too, helped to work the thing upon me. Then there was further evidence—an old axe, with which my wife had chopped a ham bone; this the Sheriff found in my house, and said that was the axe which did the deed, but it was a lie. He then abused the Hon. Wm. T. Dortch, the prosecuting attorney, in unmeasured terms. He spoke in kindest terms of Messrs. John D. Kerr, Capt. Swift Galloway and Geo B. Wassom, and thanked them for the able manner in which they had defended himself and fellow prisoners. He said I don't know whether Bob Thompson and Noah Cherry are guilty or not. I know that I am not.

NOAH CHERRY AGAIN ADDRESSES THE AUDIENCE.

Noah Cherry for the second time addressed the audience, in which he abused Jerry Cox for his rascality, but closed by saying that he hoped to meet him in heaven.

ROBT THOMPON'S SPEECH.

He said: "Well gentlemen, this is the last time we will ever be together. I am going to tell you the truth, I want to meet my God in peace. I am accused of murdering Jimmy Worley and his wife by that rascal Jerry Cox, but he (Cox) is the very man that did the work, and he ought to be here where Bob Thompson is sitting now. He then referred to the bloody clothes of Noah Cherry, and endeavored to exonerate him from all participation in the horrible crime.

HARRIS ATKINSON AGAIN.

Gentlemen, Mr. Bonitz, of the Messenger, and Capt. Fulghum, of the Raleigh News, say that I and old Noah Cherry killed poor Jim Worley and his wife, and we couldn't deny it. They have said something about little Tildie Worley pointing us out as the murderers, but some white folks told that gal to call my name and say that I killed her papa. * * * *

BOB. THOMPSON'S FAREWELL.

At this period Bob Thompson makes his farewell address and bids the vast assemblage good bye and begs them all to meet him in heaven.

NOAH CHERRY AND HARRIS ATKINSON

rising to their feet, and looking upon the vast crowd, said, "good bye good bye to you all."

At this point Mr. Wassom, the colored lawyer, who defended them, came upon the scaffold, and taking each by the hand, bade them good-bye. The prisoners begged Mr. Wassom to give their respects to Capt Galloway and Mr. Kerr. Rev. Mr. Pearsell bade them good bye next.

LEGS PINIONED AND THE BLACK CAP.

At 2:53 p. m., Sheriff Grantham ascends the scaffold and bids the condemned good bye. The ropes were then adjusted around their necks, their legs and arms pinioned, and the black cap drawn over the head of each at At this moment Bob Thompson was engaged in prayer, saying: "Lord, have mercy upon me! Lord, have mercy upon me!"

THE DROP FALLS.

At exactly 3:03 p. m. the sheriff sprung the trap, and Noah Cherry, Bob Thompson and Harris Atkinson are launched into eternity. As the drop fell, the wife of Harris Atkinson, who was in the crowd outside the enclosure fainted; several negro women shouted, and for the moment great excitement prevailed. Noah Cherry died instantly. Dr Moore, the attending surgeon, says that the heart of Robt Thompson ceased to beat six minutes after the fall. Harris Atkinson was pronounced dead within seven minutes from the time the drop fell., At 3:37 p m, their bodies were cut down and placed in plain pine coffins, and the bodies turned over to their friends for interment, and thus ends the last act in the great Worley tragedy.

TRINITY COLLEGE.

ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT WEEK.

Address of Gov. Colquitt Before the Literary Societies—Fraternity Banquits—Large Assemblage.

By Special Reporter for the News.

TRINITY COLLEGE, June 13.

The day has been a lovely one, the weather cool and pleasant and the occasion much enjoyed. A large audience assembled in the spacious chapel this morning at 11 a. m. to hear before the graduating class which was delivered by Bishop W. M. Wightman, of Charleston, S. C. At 11 a. m. the Marshal escorted the Senior class into the chapel, and to fronts seats near the rostrum. At 11.5 the faculty, trustees, ministers and dignitaries, numbering about thirty in all were escorted by the Marshal into the chapel and to seats upon the rostrum. In a few minutes Dr. Craven entered accompanied by Bishop Wightman followed by Col. R. F. Armfield, accompanied by Gov. A H Colquitt, Bishop Wightman kneeled a few moments in private devotion. The services were opened with the singing of a beautiful anthem by the choir. Bishop Wightman read as a scripture lesson a portion of the 17th chapter of Acts, which was the address of St. Paul to the Athenians on Mars Hill, and a description of the circumstances attending its delivery. He then announced the 21st hymn which was sung by the choir, and the audience was led in prayer by Rev. W. S. Black, of Raleigh, N. C., after which the Bishop announced the 471st hymn, after che singing, of which he announced his text and delivered his sermon.

THE ANNUAL SERMON

BISHOP WIGHTMAN'S SERMON.

The text was Acts xvii:25, "for we are also his offsprings."

After a brief presentation of the circumstances under which St. Paul, at Athens, made this quotation from one of the Greek poets, it was shown how admirably the Apostle met the confessed difficulties of his position, and how he was led to give emphasis to the statement of the poet, and to assert the existence of a living personal God, affirming that men who live and move and have their being in this God, and are capable of knowing him, ought not to have fallen into the ignorance and follies of idolatry.

That we are the offspring of God is an all-important fact; and it suggests inferences worthy of profound attention.

1. This statement is sustained by the intuitions of the reason, and confirmed by the direct and unmistakable testimony of Revelation. God had an archetypal plan before creation. This might have designed humanity on one or the other of two patterns, viz.—1. Such a creature as should not be morally related to the Godhead, with no endowment of reason, with no sense of right and wrong, no religious faculty, no immortality. According to that plan man would have had no endowment of liberty, but have lived and moved by the necessitations of natural law, with no possibility of sin, subject to no moral catastrophes, with no knowledge of the meaning of guilt, shame, remorse. Or, 2. He might have planned the coming humanity as the crown and glory of the natural word, and on such a model as should involve moral relationship to Himself. And so it is in fact. Man in his highest sphere of faculty is the offspring of the august "Father of Spirits;" and being akin to God, he can receive divine communications, enter into God's thoughts, feel high aspirations, and know himself as thus related. To a race of beings such as these God may be eternal Father; while to the other supposed class he could never be more than he now is to the beasts that perish. Such is reason's testimony. That of the Bible is equally distinct. The Mosaic account of man's creation is this: "Let us make man in our image, after our likeness." This cannot refer to the body of man, for that has no resemblance to an immaterial essence whose characteristic elements are thought, sentiment, will. No material form, no matter how majestic, can type the incorporeal Divinity. Nor can it refer to dominion; the expressive terms likeness, image, must imply something personal, something that coustitutes the essential being of God—his spirituality. Then, how emphatically the Divine Teacher affirms this fatherhood of God in the sermon on the Mount. And our redemption, as a thing accomplished in us, personally and individually, what is its glory and great end but the adoption of sons, with its solemn but jubilant cry, "Abba Father."

2. In man, as the offspring of God, we find the sublime and dread prerogatives of conscience.

What meaning would there be in conscience if there existed no constitutional relations to God? How inexplicable the sense of responsibility if there were no such thing as duty? How can we conceive of duty which does not ground on relations—especially relations to God such as the text affirms? No; the basis of duty is valid. The dignity and prerogatives of conscience find their attestation in the felt degradation of sin, in the bitter moan of a lost self.

3. This relationship to God explains that wonderful intervention of the Son of God for the redemption of fallen man.

The necessity for redemption is found in the possibility and the fact of sin. But the very noblest of all God's mere sentient creatures are utterly incapable of sin just as they are incapable of holiness. From man's bosom alone, wrung with guilt and remorse, could possibly arise the cry: "God, be merciful to me a sinner." Alas, how fallen from his original glory—how marred is the divine image! A ruin beyond doubt; yet even in ruins, how magnificent! What is needed here? Not mere improvement by the development of some supposed stock-powers which may bring him back to the virtue of holiness: not a high ideal and a hopeless flight after it with broken wing; but a restoration by a Divine Restorer. What is wanted is a salvation—a new birth transcending infinitely a new development; a restoration of the lapsed spiritual powers; the bringing back the alienated spirit to intercourse with God; the tidal sweep of a new life in the soul. Impressions emanating from the Supreme intelligence may go directly to the human intelligence; produce the sense of spiritual want, awaken conscience, kindle desires, and ply the spirit with inducements to turn to God and find rest in Christ. O, these God-ward relations, these faculties and capacities which may "feel after" and the bidding God; receive pardon, peace, and the comfort of the Holy Ghost! There you see the shining summit of faculty and possibility in man. The soul is majestic because it mirrors the Infinite. Its desires can outfly the stars. The height of its perfection is to receive and become all that God proposes to do for it, in the inbreathing of Himself, the infinite beauty of good. Well then may the Christian hold up his head. He belongs to a "sky-born, sky-guided, sky-returning race." He ought to estimate aright the glories of his birth and state. His citizenship is in Heaven, his name is found in its registers. For his guidance shine the Heavenly lights in God's word, and God's angels are for him ministering spirits.

To the young men who are presently to go forth from these academic shades through the unbarred gates, into the great world of achievement, could anything more impressive be presented than the sentiment and spirit of these lofty words: "We are his offspring!" Could the grandeur of the relationship they indicate, the more than regal dignity they involve, be but worthily realized by you, how noble and beautiful, how honorable and sacred, how useful and blessed would be your lives. The recollection of your ancestral dignities, of your connection with a race totally, essentially, irrevocably, eternally distinct from, superior to, ascidian, swine, or ape, how this would enforce the duty of walking worthy of God, to all well-pleasing of our Heavenly Father, in all things great and little. May God give you the grace and constant aid of His Holy Spirit, my young friends, to enable you ever to act on this one great line of principle and purpose—to hold yourselves bound to do so in the face of the frivolities of shams, the passing fashions and the lying atheisms of the time. By all that is grand in the heraldy of the soul, by all that is noble and illustrious in its genealogy, I beseech you to rise above what is sordid and temporary in the interests of earth. As the children of the King eternal, invisible, let your port be princely. Let your lives be luminous with manly virtue, with devout, spiritual religion, so that they may attest the validity of your sonship; as the face of Moses shone with resplendent lustre when he came down from the flaming mount, where his prayer, "show me the glory," had been answered. Then no matter what shock of chance or change may strike your earthly career, though the earth be removed and the very heavens be shrivelled into smoke, you shall be partakers of God's eternity, as you have borne his image and likeness on earth; and go on in the jubilant ascent from glory to glory, in a progression that knows no pause, no termination, and where the things eternal, now invisible, shall all be seen in their true magnitudes—in their stupendous, ever-brightening glories, forever and forever.

BISHOP WIGHTMAN.

The Bishop is a fine-looking specimen of the old South Carolina gentleman, with fine social qualities, and first-class scholarly attainments. His sermon was eloquent, scholarly, and made a fine impression. The ministers and dignitaries on the rostrum enjoyed it very much, and signified their enjoyment and approval of it by frequent amens, and tears and smiles of approval. Both he and his sermon will long be remembered by the vast audience assembled to hear him. The services were concluded with prayer by Rev. Ira T. Wyche, of the North Carolina Conference, the doxology by the choir, and the benediction by Bishop Wightman.

GOVERMOR COLQUITT'S ADDRESS.

At 3 p. m., the audience was again called together by the ringing of the college bell, and an inspiring air from the famous Salem Cornet Band.

The Literary Societies came in in procession, followed by the trustees and prominent gentlemen present, who took seats upon the rostrum. Governor Colquitt entered with Dr. Craven on one side of him, and Bishop Wightman on the other. After music by the band, Dr. Craven arose, and in a handsome little speech, introduced Governor Colquitt. We would like to give you his address in full, but must content ourselves with

A SYNOPSIS OF IT.

He opened as follows: "It has often occurred to me that no subject of contemplation is so fraught with profound interest, addressing the heart and mind, as the youth of a country and the educational methods and influences which are employed in its development." He went on to speak of the interest and emotions awakened in his mind and heart by the scene before him, every patriot in the land whose mind is earnestly at work in the great concerns of social improvement, feels an interest in the youth of the land. He had accepted the polite invitation to be here to-day with an earnest desire to be of some service, small, though it might prove, he proposed an interchange of thoughts and suggestions relating to

THE DUTY OF THE DAY.

To us of the South this theme has peculiar significance. The problem of the hour and the duty is to ascertain what parts of our peculiar character and habits shall be preserved and what corrected. The shock of the late war, which in its awful force made a continent reel, has forever changed some of our social and political conditions. We must accept the situation. The South must increase her wealth by new and multiplied industrial agencies and enterprises. We have been a great and independent people—we have nothing in our past of which to be ashamed, but now we must meet the question of dependence—for us the economic question arises what shall we do for ourselves and what shall we have others do for us. Our pursuits must be diversified—less than 75 per cent of our population must be given to Agriculture, the mechanical trades must be multiplied among us, and our children must fill them. The time has been, when we hired men beyond our borders to make our cradles and our coffins—there was no reproach in this—they made them like men and we paid for them like gentlemen, but now we must change—we must encourage the mechanical and manufacturing interests. The speaker then went on to impress the young men that there was something higher and nobler than mere temporal prosperity—virtue and religion must be cultivated—religion is ever lasting—all things else fail. Material prosperity is necessary—text books are good, but a religious life is far better than everything else. His speech was full of intellectual power, solidity, rich humor and showed Gov. Colquitt to be a scholarly, Christian gentleman and an able statesman of the very first rank. Everybody was pleased with him. He closed in the following words, addressed to the young men: "In the midst of the social and moral obliquities of the age you must stand firm and unremoved, solid as pillars of granite, like Socrates stood in the midst of the thirty tyrants, demanding that rights be respected and that justice be done."

We congratulate Georgia on having such a noble Governor; who is an honor to her and a blessing to the country. Long may he live to multiply his good deeds.

THE ADDRESS BEFORE THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION.

At 8 p. m., the audience again assembled in the chapel to hear the annual address before the Alumni Association, which was delivered by Rev. W. C. Gannon, of the North Carolina Conference, who was introduced to the audience by Prof. W. K. Gibbs, President of the Association.

MR. GANNON'S ADDRESS

was well written and well delivered. He first congratulated the gentlemen of the Alumni Association on being permitted to meet in this their 25th anniversary under such favorable circumstances, and congratulated all the parties concerned on the past success and encouraging prospects of the future of Trinity College. He announced as his theme

THE WANTS OF THE AGE.

The wants of the age, he said, were not men—they were plentiful as the stars, but they were small men,—men of small calibre the wants of the age were not brains per se—we really wanted men and brains, but the great demand was for good character—men of the highest order of moral character—we have some good moral character, but not enough. It is character that makes men, and men make nations, and good men make great nations. The speaker developed and impressed this thought in a forcible, clear and practical manner, for about forty minutes, and closed by urging the Alumni Association to aim high and to hold on steadily, and finally take their places among the immortelles, and join the shining population of the skies.

GOV. COLQUITT CALLED OUT.

After Mr. Gannon's address, Dr. Craven called out Gov. Colquitt for an impromptu address. The Governor came forward and entertained the audience in a speech of twenty-five minutes, abounding in good sense, sparkling wit, and the most enjoyable humor. His speech made a fine impression. It was one of the finest impromptu speeches to which we ever listened.

THE FRATERNITY BANQUETS.

After the exercises were over in the chapel by special invitation and request we attended the banquets of the Kappa Sigma and Chi Phi fraternities, in company with Governor Colquitt. The evening was spent very pleasantly in drinking toasts in lemonade and in eating delicious fruits, confectioneries &c &c. The tables were loaded with good things—the ladies were beautiful and the gentlemen were happy. After a sumptuous feast all left feeling that it was good to be there, whether they will feel so in the morning or not is doubtful. During these exercises several handsome addresses were delivered by members of the fraternity, Gov. Colquitt made a pleasant little talk before the Chi Phi fraternity.

A SUCCESSFUL DAY.

The crowd to-day has been very large. There were about 1500 people here to-day. The exercises have been highly creditable to all concerned. The crowd to-morrow will be much larger than it has been, and if the exercises are as successful and entertaining as they have been to-day, the present commencement will be a grand success in every particuhlar.

Bishop Wightman and Governor Colquitt expressed themselves to us to-day as being highly pleased with what they had seen of Trinity, and upon them, as upon all others who attend Trinity commencements, a fine impression has been made. Trinity has a wonderful faculty for making entertaining and successful commencements. You will hear from us again to-morrow.

Resuming Work.

By Cable to the News.

LONDON, June 14.—At Burnley 2,500 looms, employing 1,000 operatives, have resumed work within the past two days.

A large meeting of weavers at Blackburn unanimously resolved to resume work at 10 per cent. reduction. It has also been arranged to hold meetings of the employees at the various mills throughout East Lancashire on Monday, to ascertain the general feeling on the subject.

The Central Executive Committee of the Democratic Party.

By virtue of a resolution passed at the State Democratic Convention on the 13th inst., conferring authority upon me as President of said Convention to select a Central Executive Committee to be composed of seven members, upon consultation with and advice of the members of the State Committee appointed for the several congressional districts, I do hereby appoint the following gentlemen to constitute said committee:—

CAPT. S. A. ASHE, Chairman,
R. H. BATTLE, JR.,
J. J. LITCHFORD,
GEO. H. SNOW,
W. H. PACE,
WALTER CLARKE,
LON. D. STEVENSON.

H. B. SHORT,
President State Democratic Convention.

GRANVILLE tobacco farmers have been receiving fabulous prices for their excellent and superior bright leaf.

JAMES B. CREWS, Esq., Democratic candidate for Sheriff of Granville, has retired in obedience to the wish for party harmony. His conduct is universally applauded.

THE Oxford correspondent of the News, says:—The Reverend Lewis K. Willie, of this place, for many years a prominent minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church, died on Thursday night, the 13th, at nine o'clock. His mental and bodily health had been precarious for many months. He was some sixty years of age.

IN some immaterial points, changes in the votes of counties and other minor details, there necessarily occured inaccuracies in the reports of Thursday's proceedings of the State Convention, impossible to have been avoided by the Secretaries and Reporters of a body so hurried in the transaction of its business, and such errors as may be called to the attention of the News will be cheerfully corrected, as such in these columns are the result of neither inattention nor careless reporting, but of those things which no fellow could help.

ATTENTION is called to a letter of Solicitor Whedbee, for which vindication he is to be thanked, official in its character, setting back a falsehood which, seeming to have taken shape at Washington, was revamped and set afloat in Raleigh. It is a pity that these creatures of falsehood have nothing more plausible upon which to rely for political capital than that the people of North Carolina are in the habit of killing their political opponents, and refusing a free expression of opinion at the ballot-box. Shame on you, slumgullions.

THE county of Caldwell, before the name of Colonel George N. Folk was mentioned in connection with the Supreme Court Bench, had instructed her delegates to vote for Hon. David Schenck. At the State Convention, by agreement between Colonel Folk and Professor Henry Dickson, of Finley High School, it was determined that the vote of the county should be cast for Judge Schenck as long as his name was before the convention. It was thus that Caldwell did not from the first record her vote for her favorite, eloquent and able son.

A REPORT of the commencement exercises of Thomasville Female College was written for the News, but so long delayed in the transmission as to have lost all general public interest. It is gratifying, however, to be able to state that the Thomasville Female College, under direction of Professor Rheinhardt, formerly of this city, is in a most flourishing condition, and rapidly taking its place among the leading female educational institutions of the State. In healthfulness, beauty and attractiveness of location and surroundings, Thomasville Female College has scarcely a superior in the country.

COLONEL LILES, of the Wadesboro Herald, was up here to the Convention the other day, and stirred round quite lively for a while, but he suddenly deceased. When Plummer, of Robeson, nominated Ashe for Supreme Court Judge, Liles lost his breath; when Col. Wharton Greene, of Warren, seconded the nomination, he manifested a slight convulsion; and when Colonel Bennett made the great speech which nominated Mr. Ashe, Liles fainted. But it was when President Short announced that Hon. Thomas S. Ashe, of the county of Anson had received the nomination of Supreme Court Judge, that Liles died right there in the Convention. The last seen of him a few friends had assembled around his bier (lager.)

The Court.

A Republican, whose position in the community warrants the publication, writes the News a letter, in which he hopes the whole people of North Carolina will write on the Supreme Court ticket nominated on Thursday, and thus elevate the high judiciary of the State above the plane of politics, and free it from the partialities of party.

The suggestion is a good one come from where it may. The people want a good judiciary, and no politics about it.

The poor and the humble are much interested here. The only hope of the poor and the obscure man is in a strong judiciary. Money will command the services of the best lawyers, but the poor man in Court is lost if he find not there a just and learned Judge to take cognizance of his unplead case, and do him fair and right.

The greatest misfortune that ever overtook our colored people was the madness which took possession of them in 1868, and led them to establish a Judiciary, which, of all people in the world, they had best shunned, for the shield of justice, in weak hands has been a curse and a constant misfortune to the colored people, hauled up for petty offenses, and too poor to employ learned counsel. Of all people in the world, the poor and the humble, are vitally interested in a judical ticket like that nominated by the Democrats on Thursday.

The Goldsboro Execution.

The News presents a graphic description of the work of the gallows at Goldsboro yesterday.

There is but one editorial comment now necessary, and that is in reference to the very praiseworthy conduct of the people of Wayne throughout this most horrible perpetration of crime. They but give another evidence of the completeness of law and order in North Carolina. In almost any other State these criminals would have met speedy justice at the hands of the Court of Judge Lynch.

But it is not so in North Carolina. These steady going people believe in the law. The fact is they have an idea that nothing can be superior to the law, and in respect to all crimes they prefer to have a fair trial by judge and jury, and let the law take its course.

The people of Goldsboro and Wayne county are to be congratulated on the good order preserved yesterday with the town overflowing with twelve thousand people. It showed that the people were calm in their satisfaction at the due course of the law, but alive to the interest of a full measure of justice.

The News claims to have been of very instrumental assistance in publishing and ferreting out this crime, and at the final close of this horrible matter, it desires to again recognize the merit and assistance to public justice of those colored people of Wayne, who, organizing themselves into a high court of inquiry, went forward and laid bare the crime, and discovered the perpetrators. A society constituted like that of Wayne, in respect to both races of its population, is safe, and may be relied on in any emergency.

OUR SUPREME COURT.

A Republican Endorsement of Smith, Ashe and Dillard.

A Letter to the News

RALEIGH, June 14.

The election of Supreme Court Judges by the popular vote has never met with much favor in this State, although it was incorporated in the Constitution of 1868, when the Republicans had a large majority, and re ordained by the Constitutional Convention of 1875 which was controlled by the Democrats. Such is the law, and it cannot be changed now. The Judges of all our Courts, especially our Supreme Court Judges, should be removed from party influences, but under the present system, it is almost impossible for it to be so.

AN OPPORTUNITY.

An opportunity is now presented to our people—to both parties—and to men of no party—to lay aside all partizan prejudices and to elect a Supreme Court that shall be free from the prejudices and influence of politics The gentlemen nominated by the Democratic State Convention on yesterday, for seats on the Supreme Court Bench are lawyers of unquestioned ability, gentlemen of unimpeachable character, and citizens honored and beloved by our entire people. Two of them, at least, will hardly look forward to a re-election. If supported by both parties, then all grounds for charging that the court will be influenced by party prejudices will be removed, and we will have judges who will not prostitute their high office to advance the interest of a political party.

ALTHOUGH A REPUBLICAN.

Although a Republican of the "strait-est sect," I trust that the ticket nominated yesterday will have no opposition, either in independent candidates or regular nominees by the Republicans. To my party friends I would most earnestly suggest that all efforts to place a ticket in the field be abandoned, and that we give to Smith, Ashe and Dillard a hearty and undivided support, thus setting a noble example to our opponents, accepting their doctrine that the Supreme Court Judges should not be elected as the candidates of a political party. For one, I shall support the ticket, and oppose all attempts to place an opposition ticket in the field.

A POPULAR ORGAN.

I send this to the News because we have no organ of our own here, and I want to call the attention of Republicans to this matter at the earliest possible moment, that they may have time to consider the matter before any effort is made to place an opposition ticket in the field. Very respectfully,

A REPUBLICAN.

NAILED TO THE COUNTER.

A Radical Lie Out of Whole Cloth.

Correspondence of the News.

I notice in the Register of the 12th inst., an article copied from the National Republican, to the effect that Colonel McD. Lindsey, late a candidate for Congress in the First Congressional District, had asserted that a Republican Supervisor in one of the Albemarle Sound counties, was murdered immediately preceding the Presidential election of 1876. It is evident that the writer of that article, while he is very inaccurate in his geography, refers to the death of one Jack Glover, of the county of Hyde, who was unfortunately drowned in Pamlico river a few days preceding that election. In my official capacity as Solicitor of the 1st District, I had the matter fully investigated, and while I will say nothing of those who are dead, I will say that the assertion of Lindsey is without the slightest foundation and, as I believe, willfully false. There are no truer or better people than the citizens of Hyde, and whatever may be their political principles, they would not for one moment have hesitated to punish such a crime as as Lindsey represents this to have been. It is only by accident that I have seen the article to which he alludes, but I would be derelict to my duty if I permitted this good people to be maligned with impunity. I therefore pronounce it a lie.

VEGETINE.

VEGETINE

Purifies the Blood, Renovates and Invigorates the Whole System.

ITS MEDICINAL PROPERTIES ARE

Alterative, Tonic, Solvent and Diuretic.

VEGETINE is made exclusively from the juices of carefully selected barks, roots and herbs, and so strongly concentrated, that it will effectually eradicate from the system every taint of Scrofula, Scrofulous Humor, Tumors, Cancer, Cancerous Humor, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Syphilitic Diseases, Canker, Faintness at the Stomach, and all diseases that arise from impure blood. Sciatica, Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Gout and Spinal Complaints, can only be effectually cured through the blood.

For Ulcers and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, Pustules, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, Tetter, Scald-head and Ringworm, VEGETINE has never failed to effect a permanent cure.

For Pains in the Back, Kidney Complaints, Dropsy, Female Weakness, Leucorrhœa, arising from internal ulceration, and uterine diseases and General Debility, VEGETINE acts directly upon the causes of these complaints. It invigorates and strengthens the whole system, acts upon the secretive organs, allays inflammation, cures ulceration and regulates the bowels.

For Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Habitual Costiveness, Palpitation of the Heart, Headache, Piles, Nervousness and General Prostration of the Nervous System, no medicine has given such perfect satisfaction as the VEGETINE. It purifies the blood, cleanses all of the organs, and possesses a controlling power over the nervous system.

The remarkable cures effected by VEGETINE have induced many physicians and apothecaries whom we know to prescribe and use it in their own families.

In fact, VEGETINE is the best remedy yet discovered for the above diseases, and is the only reliable BLOOD PURIFIER yet placed before the public.

MR. H. R. STEVENS:—

Dear Sir,—Having during the past five years sold your Vegetine, which has been praised by my customers highly for the various diseases requiring a blood purifier, and as I have heard very favorable reports of its use, I cordially endorse it as a good remedy, and believe it to be what you claim it is; viz., "The Great Blood Purifier" of the day.

Respectfully yours,
J. W. ABEL, M. D. Druggist.

PHYSICIANS SAY IT.—Vegetine gives an equable circulation of the blood. All physicians will agree that there is scarcely a disease but that could almost instantly be disposed of if pure blood could be circulated generously through the parts affected. Now, this is the way in which Vegetine performs its wonderful cures. Vegetine is exclusively a vegetable compound, made from roots, herbs, and barks.

The Bingham School,

Mebaneville, N. C., surpasses all other similar Schools in the South: 1st in age; 2d, in the character of its buildings; 3d, in numbers; 4th, in area of patronage; 5th, in ability to provide profitable employment for its proficient pupils; and 6th, while other expenses are rather below the average this North Carolina School commands somewhat higher tuition fees than any other institution of learning of any grade, for males, in the Southern States. These facts make other testimonials unnecessary.

ELECTION, THURSDAY, AUGUST 1ST.

Liver is King.

The Liver is the imperial orgrn of the whole human system, as it controls the life, health and happiness of man. When it is disturbed in its proper action, all kinds of ailments are the natural result. The digestion of food, the movements of the heart and blood, the action of the brain and nervous system, are all immediately connected with the workings of the Liver. It has been successfully proved that Green's August Flower is unequalled in curing all persons afflicted with Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint, and all the numerous symptoms that result from an unhealthy condition of the Liver and Stomach. Sample bottles to try, 10 cents. Positively sold in all towns on the Western Continent. Three doses will prove that it is just what you want.

There is Trouble in Store.

For those who neglect to rectify irregularities of the stomach, liver and bowels, which they foolishly imagine will "come right of themselves." Of this silly error such persons are usually disabused by the development of some serious chronic malady, traceable to what they were pleased to consider a trifling disorder of the above named associate organs. Such a culmination is easily avoided. A course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters invariably has the effect of renewing the secretive action of a torpid liver, restoring healthy digestion and assimilation, and rendering the habit of body perfectly regular. The activity of these all important functions being restored, and the entire system toned and regulated by this incomparable corrective and invigorant, no danger to the general health is to be apprehended from causes which, if not eradicated in time, will assuredly undermine it.

Weather Probabilities.

WASHINGTON, June 14.

For the South Atlantic States, generally lower pressure, easterly to southerly winds and slightly warmer and partly cloudy weather will prevail, with rain areas in the southern portion.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

——The trains are now filled with departing delegates.

——Many members of the late convention yet remain in the city.

——The new omnibus of the National Hotel presents a handsome appearance.

——A small party of ruralists picnicked in the Capitol Square yesterday.

——The Oak City Brass Band returned yesterday from Wake Forest. The new uniform is attractive.

——A man was in the city yesterday, looking for a couple of strayed mules belonging to Dr. Wilder, who lives about 6 miles away.

——A handsome residence is soon to be erected at at the corner of Jones and Halifax streets, materials are being now hauled for its construction.

——The usual summer dulness, so pleasantly disturbed by the convention, will once more sit down on us, not to be broken until the autumn, probably.

——The amount of $3,500 subscribed for the erection of the new gas works was outside of the subscription by the originators of the enterprise.

——The authorities of the new post-office state positively that the building will be completed and ready for occupancy on the 4th of July—1880.

——Preparations are being made at Chapel Hill for the attendance of a a great number of teachers at the approaching term of the Normal School. Several will go from this city and county.

——Col. David M. Carter, President Board of Directors of the State Penitentiary, yesterday drew from the Treasury $9,833.33, for the support of that Institution for the present quarter.

——Mr. J. G. Hall, of Hickory, one of the Directors of the Western Insane Asylum, yesterday drew from the Treasury $4,000, on account of appropriation for the construction of the building.

——A gentleman who resides not a thousand miles away, states that he has been a regular patron of the railways for twenty one years, and during that time never paid a cent of fare. He was, however, caught without a pass a day or so ago, and had for the first time, to pay. The R. R. officials heard of the mistake and at once refunded the money, apologizing for the unintentional charge. Long may he wave.

Supreme Court.

Court met at 9 o'clock on yesterday. All the Justices present.

Call of appeals from the 5th district was resumed.

H Brunhild & Bro. vs D J Rivernbark, from Richmond; compromised and appeal dismissed—defendant to pay costs.

T C Willoughby vs J D Stewart, from Union; appeal dismissed at cost of defendant.

W B Holliday vs McMillan & Hargrove, from Richmond; argued by Neill McKoy, J W Hinsdale and J D Shaw, for plaintiff, and for defendants by John Devereux, Jr., and G M Smedes.

H M Houston & Co. vs John H Walsh, from Union, argued by Wilson & Son and D A Covington for plaintiff, and for defendant by J F Payne.

State vs J F Austin, from Union; argued for the State by the Attorney-General, and for the defendant by W H Pace.

Court adjourned until this (Saturday) morning at 9 o'clock.

A Circular to Postmasters.

The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says the Postoffice Department commenced Tuesday to send to the postmasters at the various fourth-class postoffices in the United States (numbering some 38,000), circulars stating that in view of the probable change at the present session of Congress of the law regulating their compensation, by making to it depend on the amount of stamps cancelled instead of sold, as at present, it is deemed advisable to notify postmasters in order that they may commence from July, 1878, to keep their accounts to correspond with the proposed change in the law. The circular does not apply to postmasters appointed by the President.

An Important Question in Bankruptcy.

The Charlotte Observer says: While Judge Cox is upon this circuit he will hear at chambers a very important question in bankruptcy, to-wit: Whether a bankrupt's discharge is valid against a docketed judgment which was a lien upon the bankrupt's real estate at the time at which he went into bankruptcy, or whether this can be enforced against his homestead, the judgment being founded upon an antebellum claim. The question arises in the case of Withers, executor, against Stinson, from Mecklenburg, and excites considerable interest in the legal profession.

Penitentiary Recruits.

W. F. Griffith, Deputy Sheriff of Mecklenburg county, yesterday placed in the tender care of the authorities of the State Penitentiary, Cosey Blair, convicted of larceny and sentenced to 10 years imprisonment.

Deputy Sheriff Daniel Howard, of New Hanover, brought up three prisoners, all negroes, which were taken within the sheltering walls of the penitentiary: David Walter, booked for two years' stay; Ben Hill, two years; John Bright, one year.

Mayor's Court.

William Powell, an old offender, was arrested for assault upon George Murray, a negro drayman, with a knife. He was held for trial to-day.

Two negro women, after quite a lengthy stay in the guard-house, as punishment for being drunk and disorderly, were released.

A couple of masculine offenders, for intoxication, were released after the usual 24 hours' durance.

WAKE FOREST COLLEGE.

FORTY-FOURTH COMMENCEMENT.

Thursday Evening's Exercises--Laying the Corner Stone--Addresses--Resolutions of Thanks--The Reception.

By Special Reporter for the News.

THURSDAY EVENING.

At 3 o'clock the chapel is again crowded by young an old, to listen to speeches in honor of the event of the commencement, laying the corner stone of Science Hall.

LETTER FROM GOV. VANCE.

The following letter was then read by Dr. Wingate

DEAR SIR—I greatly regret my failure to attend this morning. The crowd in the hotel is great, and the noise and discomfort made Mrs. Vance much worse yesterday. To-day it will be still greater, and she begged me not to leave her. So at the last moment I am compelled to disappoint you. But I beg that you will feel assured of my sincere regret; it would have been at once my pleasure and my pride to have assisted in laying the corner stone of your new building to be dedicated to Science, Religion and moral good of our country, nothing but a providential hinderance keeps me away.

With the earnest hope that the occasion may be as happy as the objects are excellent,

I am dear sir,
Most truly,
Z. B. VANCE.

ADDRESS OF DR. PRITCHARD.

Judge Kerr, acting as chairman, introduced Dr. T. H. Pritchard, who, in a forcible speech, urged the importance of education. Forty years ago, he said, the corner stone of the main building was laid, with a debt then hanging over it. To-day we meet to lay the corner stone of a building which, when finished, will be paid for. This proves the wisdom of investing money in institutions of learning. Education lies at the foundation of civilization; nations are powerful in proportion as they are educated. Education, too, is of material value; it brings wealth. Massachusetts, though having a poor and rocky soil, owns one thousand dollars' worth of property to every man, woman and child; Connecticut the same, which is due, in large measure, to their educational advantages. Switzerland owes her wealth to her cultivated population. The grade of morality depends also upon education. Ignorance builds our jails and penitentiaries. North Carolina, our native State, and ever dear to our hearts, needs the healthful influences of education; there are only four male colleges in the State, and less than 400 students attending them. Only about 700 young men in our academies and colleges. This apathy is criminal; apathy it is, because the last two Superintendents of Public Instructions have failed to induce the Legislature of North Carolina to pay their expenses while travelling in the interest of education. Politicians are afraid to vote money to educate the children. Many children are now chopping cotton who ought to be at school. Parents also are to blame.

He is not ashamed that he is a Baptist, but ashamed of his people in some regards. The colored people in Dr. Tupper's schools at Raleigh are paying more for education than the one hundred thousand Baptists in the State give to send their boys to Wake Forest. Education is costly, and always works itself down, not up; it must be given and urged by educated men upon the masses. Intellect rules the world. He has been praying for a really great man in Church and State; a man who, by the force of his genius and enthusiasm, can move the whole commonwealth. He has not yet appeared.

Though costly it is worth a hundred fold more than it costs. Germany gives $2,500,000 to the support of her universities. Oxford receives $2,300,000 annually. Other colleges count their money by millions. But Oxford, in a sense, rules England and America owes her civilization in a great measure to English culture.

Brown University has $600,000, and cries for more. Princeton has now $2,350,000, having raised $2,000,000 in six years. Virginia pays $30,000 to her university, and $6,000 to Lexington. North Carolina, about $7,000 and Georgia $8,000. With all this cost, it pays. See how long these institutions have been standing, and doing good.

Brown University is 107 years old; Yale has been in existence 175 years, and Harvard 240 years, and a Baptist preacher, named Hansard Nollis, established the first scholorship in this institution. That man's money has been working ever since. Oxford was doing its work in the time of Edward, the confessor, 840 years ago. We do not know their names, but the men, who founded it are now, to a great extent, ruling the world. To make North Carolina truly great, her people must be educated.

He thinks religion should always be connected with education, that the cultivation of the intellect should always be coupled with that of the heart.

At Wake Forest we have such an educational system,—only 1½ out of every hundred who have gone out from this college have proven failures and brought disgrace on their mother. Not another institution in North Carolina can show such a record. Send your boys where they will breathe an atmosphere of purity.

DR. MCDONALD.

Dr. McDonald, of Richmond, was next introduced. His speech abounded in refreshing wit, happy hits, and touching appeals to all interested in the college, to rally to its support. As it took Moses 40 years to prepare for the liberation of his people, so, for forty years this college has been preparing to free our sons from ignorance. He can kneel in every church in Virginia and thank God, he says, for John Kerr and Jos. B. Taylor.

JUDGE KERR'S ADDRESS.

Judge Kerr next addresses the audience in his own inimitable style. We have assembled to lay the corner-stone of Science Hall. There is much science, so-called. But here science, true knowledge, will be taught. "Knowledge is power" for good or for evil. It never exists in a state of inaction. Education without religion is a curse. Educate a knave and the first thing he will do is to forge your name. Mental culture alone will not elevate a people. Many colleges now send forth young men with minds embittered against the religion of Christ. Wake Forest, he thinks, has done as much or more to Christianize North Carolina than any other college in it. He here pays a fitting tribute to its founder, Samuel Wait, D. D.

He believes the existence of Benj Franklin to have been a curse to the world. The lightning rod, doing as much harm as good, is a fit monument to his memory. "A penny saved is two pence made," was about all the religion he ever had. He thinks that his writings are to be blamed for much of the penuriousness which now exists among our people. Hopes seniors in their speeches will cease to praise him even for "chaining the lightning," for the honor of it has been unjustly given to him.

THE NEW BUILDINGS.

Dr. Pritchard now explains the plan of the new buildings to be erected. Science Hall is situated on a line with the main building at its Northern end. Its dimensions are 100x40, and two stories high. It will contain a large room for a Library in the centre, and two rooms at each end for Museums or Laboratories. Its cost will be about eight thousand dollars, and the denomination is under lasting obligations to Col. J. M. Heck, and John G. Williams, of Raleigh, for their liberality. These gentlemen are erecting this building at their own expense.

Another building of the same size is to be put up at the south end of the College. When they are both finished and connected by corridors with the old building, it will be a house presenting a front of 460 feet, one of the most imposing structures in the State. Maj. Vass, of Raleigh, has offered one thousand dollars towards the other building and expects in a short time to see its walls rising.

RESOLUTION OF THANKS.

Rev. R. R. Savage, offered the following resolution, which was adopted by a rising vote of the large audience present.

WHEREAS Our brethren J. M Heck and John G. Williams have been moved to have built and placed at the disposal of the Trustees of Wake Forest College, a building to be known as Science Hall; therefore,

Resolved, That the thanks of this Board, and of the Baptist of North Carolina are due and are hereby tendered to these brethren for their generous and timely donation.

LAYING THE CORNER STONE.

We all now repair to the foundation of Science Hall, and listen to some earnest words from the venerable Dr. Brooks, who goes through the ceremony of laying the corner stone. He pays a high tribute to Mr. Hale, the first editor in North Carolina, and to others who have taken part in her educational interests, especially to the two noble men to whom we are indebted for this building.

Catalogues of the institution, pictures of the Faculty, Trustees and others, and a copy of the Bible are put within the corner stone. Rev. R. H. Griffith leads in an impressive prayer, and thus closes a day which will be fruitful of great results to the Baptists of North Carolina.

SOCIAL GATHERING.

At night a social party is held, complimentary to the graduating class. The halls, the chapel and the campus sparkle with beauty. Old friends meet and talk of joyous by-gone days, and the bright prospects for the future. Here friendships are formed which will doubtless be as lasting as the old.

We are glad that Wake Forest does not stand on its head during commencement week by elevating the cultivation of the foot above that of the intellect. Conversation, witty or weighty, is in demand, and the old rule in political economy, that the supply equals the demand, is well illustrated. All are satisfied. If you enjoy good music, listen and your ear is feasted. If beauty of countenance or dress is more pleasing, you have but to keep your eyes open to be satisfied. Those who enjoy conversation can make it a feast of reason and flow of soul. All agree in pronouncing this one of the most pleasant and successful commencements in the history of the college. The speaking, on the whole, was above the average. The sermon by Dr. Henson could scarcely fail to make an impression on the most careless listener; and Dr. McDonald's speech, no reporter could do it justice. The eye, the voice, the pathos, must be present to appreciate it. No young man, who has any noble instincts in his nature, can forget it.

The Central Executive Committee.

Pursuant to a vote of the convention, and instructions therein given, the District State Executive Committees of the various Congressional Districts, together with the President of the Convention who were directed to appoint the State Central Executive Committee, met at the Yarboro at 8:30 a. m., yesterday. The following were present:

Col. H. B. Short, President.

FIRST DISTRICT.

Jas E Shepherd, of Beaufort; T R Jernigan, of Hertford; Burgess Urquhart, of Bertie; Henry Wahab, of Hyde.

SECOND DISTRICT.

A J Galloway, of Wayne; W J Green, of Warren; R B Peebles, of Northampton; J S Long, of Craven.

THIRD DISTRICT.

Jas A Worth, of Cumberland, Duncan J Devane, of New Hanover; C. W. McClammey, of Pender; Col H B Short, of Columbus.

FOURTH DISTRICT.

Caleb B Green, of Durham; J S Amis, of Granville; H A London, Jr, of Chatham; Dr J W Vick, of Selma.

FIFTH DISTRICT.

George H Gregory, of Guilford; Jas W Reid, of Rockingham; James Holeman, of Person; Jas A Graham, of Alamance.

SIXTH DISTRICT.

B C Cobb, of Lincoln; Frank McNeill, of Robeson; Platt D Walker, of Mecklenburg; E R Liles, of Anson.

SEVENTH DISTRICT.

W H H Cowles, of Wilkes; Kerr Craige, of Rowan; G W Matthews, of Forsythe; T S Tucker, of Iredell.

EIGHTH DISTRICT.

Kope Elias, of Macon, A M Erwin, of McDowell; B F Logan, of Cleveland; Rob't M Furman, of Buncombe.

The result of meeting was the appointment of the following gentlemen:

S A Ashe, Esq, Chairman; Messrs. R H Battle, Jr, L D Stephenson, Walter Clark, W H Pace, Geo H Snow, and J J Litchford.

Strange Death.

A very singular death of a young son of Capt. Willie Brown, resident of Carver's Creek, in Bladen county, was, a few days since, the victim of a most singular and fatal accident. He was playing in a cemetery, when one of the head stones fell on him, crushing his skull and causing instant death.

Quick Time.

The railway companies are now running in freights in quick time. On Tuesday last, at 10 a. m., a merchant of this city ordered a car load of hay from Richmond. This arrived here on Tuesday, at 3 a. m., by the Richmond & Danville Railroad. This is quick time and hard to beat.

Dime Party and Sociable.

The ladies of the Congregation of the Salisbury Street Baptist Church gave a Dime Party and Sociable last evening, which was well attended. The object of the entertainment was to raise funds for church purposes.

A Serenade.

On last night we had the pleasure of being serenaded by Prof. C. L. Wilson, the assistant teacher of music at the Normal School at Chapel Hill. The Professor plays on the Harmonica and picks the accompaniment on a Guitar at the same time. He also favored us with a display of his vocal powers. The music was delightful.

EUROPEAN NEWS.

Text of Agreement Between England and Russia.

By Cable to the News.

LONDON, June 14.—The Times' Berlin correspondent says, Prince Bismarck, replying to Count Andrassy at Congress, expressed his belief in the success of the Congress, and particularly desire harmony established. The correspondent adds:—Bismarck says he hopes to go to Kissingen in two weeks.

The Austrian Ministers likewise anticipate an early solution of the questions at issue. It seems probable that an attempt will be made to improve upon the declaration of Paris in regard to the seizure of property afloat.

The Telegraph's Berlin despatch says Monday's sitting of the Congress will be the most important. Prince Bismarck will then present the memorandum. The first subject of discussion will be the limits of Bulgaria.

The correspondent of the Times at Vienna says the Turks have informed the Russians that they cannot surrender Shumla in the face of the present popular feeling at Constantinople. The excuse is apparantly well founded.

BERLIN, June 14.—The Emperor slept well last night. His condition is satisfactory.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 14.—The condition of the Empress is improving. She is not so weak and has not so much fever.

LONDON, June 14.—The Globe will print, to-day, the full text of the agreement between Great Britain and Busia, signed on the fifth of May, confirming in detail the terms of the agreement. Bulgaria is to be dividedin to two provinces, one North of the Balkans under a prince, the other South of the Balkans, but not touching the Aegan sea, with a governor and a government similar to that of an English colony. The Turkish troops are to permanently quit Bulgaria. England will not oppose the retrocession of Bessarabia, or the annexation of Batoum, but reserves the right to discuss in Congress the International arrangements relative to the Danube. Russia promises not to further advance her Asian frontier or take indemnity in land or interfere with the claims of English creditors. The question of payment is to be discussed by the Congress, which will also reorganize Thessaly, Epirus and the other Greek provinces. Bayazid is to be ceded to Turkey. Turkey ceding the province of Katour to Persia. Russia agrees that the passage of the Dardanelles and Bosphorus shall remain in statu quo. England will suggest at the Congress that Europe should recognize Bulgaria, and will discuss the question of the Russian occupation, and the passage of troops through Roumania. The agreement reserves to Russia and England the right to raise and discuss in the Congress all questions not included in its stipulation. But if after discussion Russia persists in maintaining the treaty as modified by this agreement, England will not dispute her right to do so. There are some minor points not mentioned in the former summary, namely: "The rectification of the Western boundaries of Bulgaria on the basis of nationalities, the superior officers of the militia in Southern Bulgaria to be nominated by the porte, with the approval of Europe, and the Turkish promises of reform in Armenia, not to be exclusively to Russia, but to England also."

The presence of Prince Gortschakoff and Lord Beaconsfield in Berlin is regarded as a source of danger and one which may derange all calculations, as Prince Gortschakoff feels he is nearing his end, and would not like to close his career with defeat, on the other hand Lord Beaconsfield is in better preservation and aspires to a crowning triumph—any question between the two men may become a personal one and reason will no longer suffice to solve it. Others think the presence of such men as Gortschakoff, Beaconsfield and Andrassy will prove an advantage.

FORTY-FIFTH CONGRESS.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Wadleigh, of New Hampshire, from the Committee on Privileges and Elections, reported adversely on the joint resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution of the United States, prohibiting several States from disfranchising persons on account of sex. Also gave notice that the report of the minority of the committee in favor of the proposed amendment would be submitted by Hoar, of Massachusetts. Ordered that the reports be re-printed, and the joint resolution be placed on the calendar with the adverse report.

The Judiciary Committee had a meeting and reaffirmed the former action adverse to Kimmell's bill. Judge Knott, who was expected to make the minority report, was not in committee. The report will be made to-morrow.

Judge Harris, Chairman of the House Election Committee, expects to call up Richardson vs. Rainey to-day or to-morrow.

HOUSE.—The civil sundry bill passed last night.

The river and harbor bill passed this a. m., under suspension of the rules, as it came from the Senate.

A struggle is progressing to pass the post route bill which covers the Brazil Steamship Company, by some parliamentary tactics.

Captain Cowden's Barataria Ship Canal bill has passed the Senate and goes to the President.

The following is the resolution of the Judiciary Committee of the House:—

Resolved, That the two Houses of the Forty-Fourth Congress having counted the votes cast for President and Vice-President of the United States, and having declared R. B. Hayes and Wm. A. Wheeler to be duly elected President and Vice-President, there is no power in any subsequent Congress to reverse that declaration, nor can any such power be exercised by the Courts of the United States or any other tribunal that Congress can create under the Constitution.

The House is struggling over the right of the Senate to attach the Brazilian subsidy to the Post Route bill.

Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow. D. Ball's Blood Mixture will accomplish this in a short period.

YANCEY COUNTY.

Crop Prospects—Mica Mines—Avery and Adams.

Correspondence of the News.

BALD CREEK, June 10.

The prospect for wheat now is much better than it was two weeks ago, as the rust that appeared on the blades only, is disappearing, I suppose by reason of the cool nights and recent rains. Some farmers say they wont make a half crop. I can't tell how it will turn out, as our harvest will not be on for two or three weeks. Corn seems to be rather small; I suppose it is owing to the continued cool cloudy weather. The month of May was cold and rather frosty. We had frost on the 6th, 11th, 12th, and a slight biting one on the 16th of May.

MINING OPERATIONS.

John Young, who is working the mica mine of G. D. Ray, on Bowland's Creek, three miles Southeast of Burnsville, took out, with one other hand, seventy-five pounds of splendid mica in six days. The James Gibbs mine, on South Toe River, in this county, is also yielding fine mica. This mine is worked by S. L. Proffitt and company.

OUR CANDIDATES.

Major A. C. Avery for Judge, and J. S. Adams for Solicitor of this, the 8th Judicial District, are all right in this county.

One thousand Telephone Shirts at 65 cents each, just received at Woollcott's Open Front Store. Wilmington Street. These Shirts are made of Androscoggin Bleaching, and the bosoms are pure linen. The lot is a consignment, and must be closed out. *

Brewster's name has never been mentioned in connection with the chief Justice place, but we hear it spoken of every day when any one wants cheap hardware, stoves, tinware, wood and willowware, paints, oils and varnish. He is agent for the famous Fowler fly fan. Call and get one. Write for prices of goods and be convinced that he will sell you goods cheaper than elsewhere. *

Choice N. C. Flour.

If you want a barrel of number one Family Flour, call on W. A. Myatt. He is just receiving a large consignment of Extra N. C. Flour, and guarantees to please you. A full line of groceries always on hand. Examine before buying elsewhere. It will pay you.

Something Worth Attention.

Consigners of county produce should ship to A. C. Sanders & Co., because they are the only commission merchants in Raleigh. They do not buy at all on their own account, but make prompt returns, at the same prices they sell at, which are the highest this market affords. *

A General Invitation

is extended to the public to call at J. C. Brewster's where will be found the most complete stock of stoves and house-furnishing goods in the city. Seasonable goods, such as fly fans, fly traps, wire dish covers, fruit jars, &c., hardware and builders' material, edge tools, iron, steel, nails, horse and mule shoes.

Tin roofing cheaper than shingles. Job work all kinds—all work warranted.

Appolinaris water on draft is something entirely new. Simpson has it.

The best soda and mineral waters to be had at Simpsons' drug store.

Root Beer, five cents per glass, at Simpsons'.

Keep Cool.

This is a bit of good advice in these "trying" times. 'Tis also a suggestion easy to follow, since by investing in Blake's Ice, the purest and best, one can have a luxury to cool a fevered brow or a parched throat. In our climate ice has a thousand uses and is a necessity. *

Notice.

I hereby notify all persons whose accounts were made previous to the 1st day of April, 1878, that unless said accounts are paid on or before the 25th day of June, 1878, I shall put them in the hands of my Attorney for collection.

The War in Europe.

The friends of peace, everywhere, hail with joy the prospect of an amicable settlement of the questions which lately threatened all Europe with a terrible convulsion, and the sufferer from Hemorrhoids or Piles will learn with delight that a remedy has at last been discovered for this painful disease. It is prepared by the Barham Pile Cure Company, Durham, N. C. Price $1 a box. Sent post paid to any address on receipt of price. *

One Thousand

Flower pots received at Lumsden's to-day. Special attention paid to orders from a distance. Lumsden has every thing to suit the season, such as fly fans, fly traps, glass and tin fruit jars, preserve kettles, preserve furnaces, bird cages, bath tubs, dish covers, covered butter crocks.

Lumsden also pays special attention to the repair of sewing machines, guns, locks, trunk locks, &c. Rubber name stamps, stencils, &c., furnished on short notice. *

Wine at Evening Parties.

No matter what may be said about the use of wines and liquors, it is the adulterated and trash mixtures that does the mischief. Where pure wines are used we hear no complaint of inebriation. We never hear of intoxication from the use of Speer's Port Grape Wine, of New Jersey. This wine is held in high estimation by the best doctors in the country, and was awarded the highest premium at the late Centennial.

SPARKLING CATAWBA SPRINGS,

Catawba County, N. C.

THIS desirable watering place will be open for select visitors 20th May, 1878. The Springs are situated near Hickory Station, on the Western North Carolina Railroad.

The bracing mountain atmosphere, with the health restoring properties of their waters, renders these Springs a most desirable resort for invalids and pleasure seekers.

The mineral waters embrace Blue and White Sulphur and Chalybeate. It is the best and most extensively fitted up watering place in the State, and can accommodate three hundred persons.

A good Band of Music will remain at the Springs during the season, and all the facilities afforded for amusements usually found at first-class watering places will be offered to visitors. A good supply of ice constantly on hand.

Conveyances will meet the trains daily at Hickory Station, to convey visitors to the Springs.

Board: $35 per month of 28 days; $12 per week; $2 per day. Half price for children and colored servants, and liberal deduction for families.

Owner and Proprietor.
